

LONDONDERRY

1987-88

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES CRAIG ALEXANDER

1943-1987

Mr. Alexander, a respected colleague and teacher, was beginning his fourth year at Londonderry when a tragic auto accident claimed his life. Previously, he had taught at Alberta Hospital, Fort Saskatchewan Correctional Institution and the Yellowhead Centre (formerly Westfield). For almost all his teaching career, Mr. Alexander worked with students, young and adult, who had trouble learning. While most of Mr. Alexander's teaching assignment at Londonderry centered around the adaptation students, he enjoyed teaching all the students. He was friendly and positive; a helper; a person who cared. He had an extraordinary sense of humor which he used often to help "break the ice" as well as a means of reacting with the students on a more personal level.

JIM ALEXANDER. You were untimely taken from our lives. We grieve with your family and share in their loss. You were a colleague, a teacher, a husband, a father, a man of warmth and compassion, but most of all . . . our friend.

WE'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER.

MEMORIES

What are memories made of? To help answer this question your yearbook committee has volunteered many hours of hard work to capture the pictures and words which are preserved as memories of your Londonderry years. On behalf of the students and staff, I wish to thank Mr. Straughan and his committee for producing this yearbook full of your memories.

As we turn one page after the next in this book, we see that our students are deeply involved in learning to live in this electronic age. We live in a time in history when we are the biggest consumers of goods, when equipment becomes obsolete as it hits the market place, when the voice of the conservationist is lonely in a distant land, and when selfishness exceeds the need for human cooperation. Yet, we strive hard to teach our students to cope with all this change and to learn to live with it.

Each one of us has a varied storehouse of some happy and some sad memories.

A shocking tragedy last September 17, 1987, claimed the life of a favourite teacher, Mr. Jim Alexander, while on his way to work at Londonderry. We share with the family a deep sense of loss!

Congratulations to our graduating students and best wishes to you in your new school. I wish all of our students and staff the best for the future. May you encounter many rewarding successes.

Thank you to all students, parents and staff for your dedication, work and concerns. It is your active support that helped create fond memories for most of us.
